

Delhi Man Kills Wife, Then Himself; Miners' Union Issues Call For Strike

JEALOUSY SEEN AS CAUSE OF TRAGEDY

Benjamin Cole, O. & W. Section Hand, Murders Wife With Revolver and Then Cuts His Own Throat

Investigation by Officials

Jealousy Said to Have Lead Cole to Attempt Suicide Two Years Ago, But Couple Had Lived in Apparent Harmony Since

(Special to The Star)

Delhi, March 21.—The murder of Mrs. Benjamin Cole by her husband, who chased her out of their home and killed her with a shot from a 38 calibre revolver which he was flourishing, and the subsequent death of the slayer by his own hand constituted a toll of tragedy this evening never before equalled in this usually quiet village. Tonight Delhi is agog with excitement and the county authorities are working on the case to determine a motive for the double slaying. Several theories have been advanced but Sheriff Arbuckle has declined to give his belief in the matter.

The body of Mrs. Cole, with a bullet wound in the back of the head, was found lying by the side of the road about 20 rods in front of her home on Upper High street by James Meehan, a neighbor, at about 9:30 o'clock. Mr. Meehan summoned Sheriff Arbuckle and Undersheriff Stewart and the three made a search of the house.

Cole's Body Found.

They found Cole lying in a pool of blood on the kitchen floor with his throat cut from ear to ear. An open razor, with which the man had evidently caused his self-destruction, lay upon the floor and upon a nearby table was a 38-calibre revolver with four of the chambers containing exploded cartridges. After they had been viewed by Coroner Grover A. Sullivan, the bodies were removed to the undertaking parlors of Jackson & Mason where autopsies will undoubtedly be performed.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole had lived in Delhi since the World war and enjoyed a good reputation in the community. Cole was employed as a section hand on the Ontario and Western railroad. Both he and his wife were about 35 years of age. Mrs. Cole was known about the village as a war bride, it being said that Cole, who was a war veteran, met her at a training camp where she was an army nurse.

Attempted Suicide Two Years Ago.

About two years ago Cole attempted suicide by taking Paris green and it was said then that he attempted the desperate act because of jealousy of his wife. Since then, however, the couple have lived in apparent harmony with no evidence of any serious domestic infelicity.

It is thought that the tragedy occurred about half an hour before Mrs.

YOUNG GIRL RELATES RICKARD'S CONDUCT

Sarah Schoenfeld Tells Jury of Alleged Assaults Made Upon Her by Sports Promoter

New York, March 21.—An under-sized, round-faced school girl in short dresses, Sarah Schoenfeld, just over 15 years old, sat in a witness chair in supreme court for more than two hours today and told Justice Wasservogel and a jury of alleged assaults upon her by George L. (Tex) Rickard, a nationally-known sports promoter.

As she related her story in a lisping voice, the man who had arranged some of the greatest pugilistic encounters in history sat with arms folded, staring at her. Only occasionally did he relax and then to whisper in his counsel's ear or to make notes with a pencil.

The girl told how she had been introduced to Rickard by her chum, Katie Gasko, last summer at the swimming pool in Madison Square Garden. He gave them both money, she said, and told them to come and see him at his office in the tower of the building. Upon their visit, she testified, Rickard gave them a note and asked them to call at an apartment in West 47th street. They called it the apartment later and there the first assault took place. He gave them each $10, she said, and asked them to call again.

Then followed a story of other visits. All but one, when she was alone, a company with the Gasko girl. The visits covered several months. She said Rickard also tried to assault her Gasko, but that she repulsed him. The amount of money he gave them, she testified, varied from time to time, ranging from $5 to $20.

After each alleged assault, Sarah testified, the promoter asked them to tell nothing of what happened. Once she asked Rickard to help get her brother Samuel out of jail in Milwaukee, where he had been arrested for stealing. Rickard promised to help, she said, and later she brought her brother to see him.

A letter was introduced in evidence alleged to have been written to Mrs. Schoenfeld by Rickard on January 18

FINAL BONUS VOTE THURSDAY

Speaker Gillett Will Permit Bill to Be Taken Up Under Suspension of Rules

LEADERS CONFIDENT

Although Two-Thirds Vote Is Necessary, They Predict Some to Spare

Washington, March 21.—Speaker Gillett consented to permit the compromise bonus bill to be taken up in the house Thursday under a suspension of the rules. It is the plan to have the final vote before adjournment that day after four hours of general debate divided equally between opponents and proponents.

A two-thirds majority will be necessary to pass the bill under this procedure but those in charge of the legislation predicted that they would have votes to spare. By this method the majority will succeed not only in shutting out all amendments but also in preventing the Democrats from offering a motion to recommit the bill.

The parliamentary plan of handling the measure was determined upon at a five-minute conference today between Mr. Gillett and Chairman Campbell of the rules committee. On leaving the speaker's office, Mr. Campbell announced that his committee would meet tomorrow morning to draft a rule making Thursday suspension day and increasing the time for debate under the suspension from the usual 40 minutes to four hours.

The speaker's rule will be presented immediately after the house convenes on Thursday, Mr. Campbell said, but whether any debate on it will be permitted has not yet been determined. The chairman might cut off discussion by moving the previous question after explaining the rule. A majority vote only will be required to adopt the rule, which Democratic leaders said would be opposed almost solidly by their side.

With the rule adopted, the next step would be for Chairman Fordney, of the ways and means committee, who will be in charge of the bill, to move to suspend the rules and pass the measure thus opening the way to general debate on the bonus itself. After four hours, the final roll call would be ordered.

PRINTERS' RULES IN CONTROVERSY

Negotiations Between Publishers and Union on Working Conditions Hit Snag

New York, March 21.—Negotiations between the American Newspaper Publishers' association and the International Typographical union for a new agreement on wages and working conditions to replace the contract which expires May 1 have struck a snag, according to a statement issued by the publishers tonight.

The difficulty, the publishers say, centers around certain inviolable laws of the union which the workers have refused to arbitrate. Chief of these is the time-honored "bogus" rule, which requires that all advertising matter set up outside the newspaper plant shall be reproduced in the plant of the newspaper within four days after the matter appears in print.

"This law," said the publishers' statement, "requires that intelligent men set type by machine and by hand, skilled men assemble the matter; trained proof-readers read it for errors, and these errors be corrected. After all this is done, no use is made of the product of their labor but to throw it in the melting pot or distribute it, the human effort, time and money being utterly wasted."

"This is one of the conditions which the union seeks to perpetuate by a refusal to consent that its justice be passed upon by an impartial arbitration board."

The publishers contend that in the past all questions unfavorable to their interests have been settled by arbitration, while questions deemed by the union to be unfavorable to its side were not submitted to an impartial body if covered in any of the union's laws.

"The publishers have always protested against this one-sided and manifestly unfair restriction," the statement says, "but have accepted even this limited arbitration rather than the alternative of no arbitration of any issue of any kind."

"They therefore now declare that they will no longer agree that burdens of this sort shall continue to be imposed upon them by the expedient of removing the law of the union from the scope of arbitration; that the arbitration shall be a genuine one, in which both parties are on a parity and which gives neither the advantage of imposing its unrestricted will on the other."

VICE CONDITIONS MAY BE PROBED AS RESULT OF TRAGEDY

District Attorney Refuses Comment on Subject; Says Investigation of Double Suicide Is Improbable

Boston, March 21.—After a conference late today with Medical Examiner George Burgess Magrath, District Attorney Thomas C. O'Brien announced that no evidence had yet been found to warrant investigation by the police or the county prosecutor of the suicide of Pauline Virginia Clark and Otto Haldor Larsen, who drank poison from the same phial. Larsen, a Norwegian student in chemical engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, killed himself Sunday with the same poison from which Miss Clark had slipped two days before in her Back Bay apartment.

The medical examiner had not finished his report on the cases, District Attorney O'Brien said, and decided as to future action would await its completion. "The girl's mother, Mrs. Sarah Herriek, is expected to arrive here tomorrow from Jamaica."

The district attorney refused to confirm or deny reports that he was about to embark upon an investigation of alleged vice conditions in the Back Bay district of Boston as a result of the tragedy.

"That is a different story," he said. "The grand jury is coming in on Thursday."

A special session of the grand jury had been called for Thursday to consider complaints of excessive food prices in certain restaurants. Vice conditions had not been contemplated in the scope of its inquiry.

Reported Engagement Denied.

Philadelphia, March 21.—Henry Wharton, father of Bayard Wharton, a member of the death party in the apartment of Pauline Virginia Clark at Boston, today denied reports that his son was engaged to Miss Clark, who ended her life.

The report of the engagement was branded as false by the young man's father who said, "It is not true, my son has made no statement to any person concerning the case except the one he made to the police. He never said he was engaged to her."

PARISH HOUSE OF HISTORIC TRINITY DAMAGED BY FIRE

New York, March 21.—Fire which broke out late today in the parish house of historic Old Trinity church on Lower Broadway destroyed the third floor and part of the fourth before the flames were brought under control. It was the second time within three weeks that fire has threatened the building.

The blaze was discovered in the Sunday school cafeteria, as thousands of persons, employed in the financial district were leaving their skyscraper offices for home. A great crowd collected when the police were called quickly spread to the building, destroying a large playroom for children, Miss Effie Armstrong, housekeeper for the clergy of St. Paul's chapel, was overcome by smoke while leading several children to safety.

MIDDLETOWN MARITAL EVENT

New York, March 21.—Mrs. Ethel C. Fish of Middletown, N. Y., today was awarded $75 weekly alimony and $250 counsel fees by Supreme Court Justice Newburger pending trial of her suit for separation from her husband, Francis S. Fish, a produce merchant. They were married October 17, 1914, at Roseton, N. Y., and have two small children. Mrs. Fish alleged the defendant neglected

MIAMI BANKER UNDER ARREST

Will Be Given Hearing Today on Charge of Being Party to Liquor Smuggling

CONTINUE CAMPAIGN

Twenty More Warrants for Alleged Booze Sellers Served by Federal Dry Agents

Miami, Fla., March 21.—C. M. Clayton, vice president of the Miami National bank, will be given a hearing before United States Commissioner Graham tomorrow on charges of being a party to the smuggling of liquor into the United States. He was arrested today with W. C. Phelps and T. N. Lewis, in connection with the clean-up campaign launched here by Colonel L. G. Nutt, of the Internal Revenue bureau, against the illicit liquor trade in Florida. Phelps and Lewis will also be arraigned tomorrow.

The warrants charge that Clayton and the other two defendants, and a woman, made a written agreement for the delivery of "commodities to A. B. Phillips," a prohibition agent, for the sum of $4,050, Clayton to handle the money for the client and to turn it over to Phelps and Lewis when the goods were delivered.

An alleged photograph of the contract and other evidence will be submitted in an effort to prove that there was an understanding among the parties that the "commodities" were to be liquors.

Clayton after his arrest issued a statement denying that he knew any of the parties concerned before the transaction and that he presumed the money was to be held in escrow by him for a legitimate business deal.

Twenty more warrants for alleged liquor sellers were served today by members of the flying squadron which is conducting the campaign under the direction of Colonel Nutt.

UNTERMYER REPLIES TO GOV'OR MILLER

Exercised Extreme Moderation in Referring to Defeat of Housing Bills, He Tells Executive

New York, March 21.—Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the Lockwood legislative committee, investigating the building trusts, today addressed a letter to Governor Miller in reply to the assertion of the governor in a letter made public last night that he made reckless charges against Speaker Machold whom he accused of having killed corrective measures introduced by the committee in the assembly.

"I think you will find I have exercised extreme moderation in my characterization of the situation that has confronted the committee in the championship of this most needed legislation, most of which the insurance companies have succeeded in defeating," wrote Mr. Untermyer.

Referring to the governor's request that he retract charges against Mr. Machold, Mr. Untermyer asserted that Mr. Machold had not received a fraction of the criticism he deserves.

"What excuse," asked Mr. Untermyer, "has he as a director of a fire insurance company and in view of his political relations for his activities in asserting himself to kill the bills to curb the insurance interests and bring them under state regulation which they have managed for years to escape to the great injury of the public which has been exploited to the point of the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars annually?"

Referring to the fate of the trade commission bill, Mr. Untermyer said that although Mr. Machold had promised him that it would be brought to a vote in the assembly he had taken the precaution of asking Assemblyman George Jesse to see that the measure was placed on record. He charged that Mr. Machold refused to recognize him. He added that the governor was manifestly as yet unacquainted with the facts and that when he "learned them, he would be the first to condemn Mr. Machold's conduct."

SLAYERS GRANTED REPRIEVES

Oswego, March 21.—Governor Miller today granted reprieves until April 21 to John P. Kelly of Jamestown, and Jacob Rosenwasser of New York, condemned murderers.

Kelly was to have been put to death next Friday for killing his wife, and Rosenwasser on April 8 for the murder of Jacob Mazura, a grave digger.

600,000 WORKERS ARE ORDERED OUT

Both Bituminous and Anthracite Men Will Quit Pits at Midnight March 31 Unless Stopped by Union

U. S. Awaits Developments

No Action Contemplated by Government Unless Strike Develops -- Hard Coal Men in Conference With Operators in New York

Indianapolis, March 21.—Suspension of work by all union coal miners at midnight March 31, was ordered today by officers of the United Mine Workers of America, the call being the first ever issued for both bituminous and anthracite workers to walk out simultaneously. Six hundred thousand men will be directly affected by the order, it was estimated officially. The suspension, the order provided, will continue until stopped by union officials.

The order, which was sent to the 3,000 local unions, directed the miners to give the operators their fullest cooperation in the protection of mine properties and counseled against violence and violations of the law. In addition to affecting all union miners in the United States, the order also directed approximately 6,650 union men in Western Canada to join in the walk-out but did not apply to 14,000 miners in Nova Scotia.

Never before in the history of the coal industry has a suspension or strike order called for a cessation of work by all union miners in the United States. In the past, wage contracts in all the bituminous and anthracite fields have not expired at the same time, but a complete tie-up in union fields was considered during the great anthracite strike of 1902. A sympathetic strike by the bituminous miners at that time was rejected by the union's convention, it being argued that the soft coal workers were bound by a contract.

The issuance of the call came with the recent strike vote of soft coal miners not completely tabulated, but it was said officially that the work of the union's board of tollers had progressed to such a point as to show every field voting overwhelmingly in favor of a suspension.

SECRETARY DAVIS MAKES NO COMMENT ON STRIKE ORDER

Washington, March 21.—While the government has not entirely abandoned its efforts to get a settlement in the coal strike called for April 1, particularly in the bituminous fields, and while the department of justice is studying possibilities of legal redress in case danger results to public peace and welfare, it was learned today in the White House and cabinet circles that no action is contemplated unless the strike develops.

Secretary Davis, in his labor department, who has represented the government in direct negotiations in the industry, had no comment to make when word of the United Mine Workers' call for suspension of work on April 1 in both the bituminous and anthracite fields reached Washington, but Attorney General Daugherty indicated he was inclined to consider that the legal branch of the government might take some steps, particularly in case transportation derangement was occasioned after the strike was under way.

At the White House, along with the statement that the effort to bring about a national conference between the operators and miners in the bituminous industry was still continuing, notwithstanding the almost complete refusal of the operators to cooperate, the existence of a great coal surplus was emphasized as a most important factor. The government's surveys indicated, it was said, that with production continuing at non-union fields, the surplus would prevent any shortages in industry and should prevent any inflation of coal prices.

The government's concern with the anthracite situation is not so great because of the disposition for amicable relationship between the mine owners and their unionized employees.

Mr. Daugherty, reviewing the legal aspects, declared that the coal strike had not reached a point where his responsibility began. He desired to know, he said, whether the government, capable of preventing disruption of railroad traffic by the use of legal power, could not also prevent the same disruption if occasioned by shortage of coal.

NEW YORK DEBUTANTE WEDS ART STUDENT IN PARIS

New York, March 21.—The secret marriage in Paris of Miss Margaret A. Train, New York debutante, who went to France to study art, and Reginald Embree of Boston, another art student, was announced in a cablegram received here today. The marriage took place last Saturday and this week the couple leave for a honeymoon in Algiers.

Mrs. Embree, who was considered one of the prettiest girls in New York society, is the daughter of former Assistant District Attorney Arthur Chenoweth, a novelist. Mr. and Mrs. Train, who are in Santa Barbara, Cal., visited their daughter last summer, and were said then to have opposed her marriage because of her youth.

IRVINE CONGRESS CANDIDATE

Ithaca, March 21.—Frank Irvine, former federal judge and public service commissioner of this city, was today nominated as the Democratic candidate for congress from the 37th district. A congressional election to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Alanson B. Houghton, who had been elected to the position, will be held on April 11. The Republican nomination will be made at Elmira on Saturday.

MINIMUM INCOME TAX SUGGESTED

Every Person in State Over 21 Years Old Would File Return Under Proposal

Albany, March 21.—A "minimum income tax," possibly of $1, was suggested for the consideration of the state's law makers in the final report of the Davenport legislative committee on taxation, which was filed in the closing hours of the 1922 session. It became known tonight that it was merely a "suggestion" and not a recommendation.

The proposed plan would be for every person in the state, more than 21 years of age, to file a return to the income tax bureau, with $1, or some other small amount to be decided upon, as a filing fee. It was explained that by so doing the income tax bureau would be saved the expense and labor in locating those subject to an income tax, would save taxpayers annoyance, and would add materially to the state's revenues.

1ST DEGREE MANSLAUGHTER

Jack Thompson of Oxford held to await action of grand jury—Admitted to bail in $2,000.

Jack Thompson, driver of the car that knocked down Charles Fisher in the village of Oxford, causing injuries which resulted in the latter's death, was ordered held Monday for the action of the grand jury on charges of first degree manslaughter.

Thompson was later admitted to bail by County Judge Hill of Chatham in the sum of $2,000. His case will be presented to the grand jury April 3 by District Attorney Ward N. Truax. Thompson has engaged H. C. Stratton to look after his interests.

Coroner's Jury Verdict.

An inquest was held at Oxford Sunday by the coroner, Dr. A. H. Morse. A dozen witnesses being examined by the district attorney. After the evidence was closed the coroner's jury composed of 12 men, decided that Fisher came to his death through the criminal acts and negligence of Thompson. It required only one ballot for the coroner's jury to arrive at this verdict.

Sentiment at Oxford seems to be strongly against Thompson because of the accident which was responsible for the aged man's death. It appears that Dr. Johnson, as president of the village of Oxford, has cautioned Thompson many times about driving his car and speeding State troopers have also warned Thompson against his fast driving, but it is reported that he has maintained a defiant attitude on these occasions.

Car Skidded 45 Feet.

On the afternoon of the accident, says the Norwich Sun, the car skidded on the dry brick pavement a distance of 45 feet before it was brought to a stop by the driver. The marks show-

ALL STARS LOSE TO DELHI

Delhi Emerald Quintet Beats Martucci's Squad of Onontario Players, 41 to 23, at Delhi Last Evening.

Martucci's All Stars of this city lost to the Delhi Emeralds 41 to 23 in an interesting game of basketball played before a large crowd at the Delhi Opera house last evening. The game was played for a side bet.

The Onontario team had the jump on their opponents early in the contest but were unable to withstand the onslaught of the fast Delhi quintet and were trailing 20 to 17, at half time. Despite strenuous endeavors on the part of Martucci's men, the Emeralds were never again headed. For the All Stars Pierce with 12 points and Smith with 10 counters led in the scoring while Thompson was the Delhi star amassing a total of 14 points.

Condition of Mr. Bratt Unchanged. The condition of Claus Bratt who was taken to the Fox Memorial hospital on Saturday suffering from what is thought to be spinal meningitis was unchanged last evening, he still being seriously ill.

ed on the pavement for two days later. It is said that the machine was in the lot for 20 miles per hour when it hit Fisher.

There has been much reckless driving of automobiles in Oxford and Norwich of late. Local authorities state and an effort is going to be made to compel motorists to drive with reasonable care and speed over the streets and especially so at street intersections.

TRADING UNCERTAIN AND PROFESSIONAL

Transactions Fall Below Million Mark for First Full Session Since Last Week

New York, March 21.—Aside from a series of favorite issues in which bullish activities were again a striking feature, trading on the stock exchange today was uncertain and obviously professional.

For the first full session since the middle of last week, transactions fell below the one million mark. A very large proportion of the dealings were confined in minor low-grade stocks of speculative character.

There was a pronounced diminution of commission house business and even the more aggressive pools seemed disposed to await the outcome of events at Washington especially the debate on the soldier bonus bill.

Prices were most uncertain in the final hour, when the rate for call loans gradually rose to 1 1/2 per cent, as against the initial quotation of 3/4. The former tone of the money market encouraged shorts to extend their commitments in the more vulnerable specialties.

Stocks such as Bethlehem Steel and Little Steel of New Jersey, as well as the consistent leaders to good financial standing, The favorable indicators were up to a degree by advance labor developments in the textile and leather industries and the call suspending work in the coal mines on April 1.

Movements of seasoned or representative 1921 stocks and equipments were unusually narrow. Most of the group were firm to strong, but oils and affiliated issues, which contributed largely to recent broad dealings, showed no very definite tone.

United States war flotations, as represented by Liberty and Victory issues were the outstanding feature of the bond market.

ONEONTA SONG BOOK WINNER

Kilpatrick Club of New York Asks 200 Copies for Meetings — Other Chamber of Commerce Activities.

That the Oneonta Song-book, published by the Chamber of Commerce, has been gaining a favorable reputation for merit has been evidenced in the written request of C. Clarence Swift of New York city to purchase 200 copies of the leaflet for use by the Kilpatrick Boys at their dinner meetings. The letter was read at yesterday's meeting of the Chamber's board of directors, who voted to send the song-books with compliments of the organization to the club of former residents who gather in New York city from time to time to renew friendships and exchange reminiscences.

Appointment of a committee to supervise the sale of the Public Rest room was authorized by the directors, and President Roscoe C. Briggs appointed Lavern Palmer, chairman, Russell E. Brigham, and Arthur E. Ford as the committee.

Reports of favorable progress from the committees on zoning, the traveling men's dinner, and on other projects of the program of work now being taken up, were received at the board meeting. An interesting discussion was held on several matters of importance to the civic and business interests of Oneonta, but nothing definite materialized at the meeting.

PLANNING AUTO SHOW

Fifteen Dealers at Conference at State Armory Last Night Confer—Spoke of Allocated and Provisional Seats for Entertainment.

Fifteen of the automobile dealers of the city met with Captain U. A. Ferguson and other representatives of Company G at the state armory last night and perfected the plans for the Auto show to be held in that building Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. All were enthusiastic over the show's prospects and with the liberal advertising throughout Otsego and a portion of Delaware county planned. It is anticipated that a large attendance will be secured.

Spaces were allotted last night to the dealers in attendance and announcement was made that dealers from Otsego, Unadilla, Cooperstown, Andes and Binghamton have reserved spaces in addition to those resident dealers who are uniting in the show. It was stated that the close of the conference that more cars as well as more makes of cars would be on display than last year, though some of the resident dealers have felt that they would not reap benefits sufficient to warrant the outlay, and have not taken spaces at the armory. They are however not opposing the show in any way and will make exhibits at their several places of business no doubt.

Steps are being made to secure entertaining features for each afternoon and evening of the show and good music is promised. All are pleased with the favorable outlook for the project.

GRIP WIDELY PREVALENT

Probably More Cases in City at Present Than at Any Previous Time This Winter. Schools Both Seriously Affected.

There are, it is believed, more cases of grip and kindred ailments in the city at the present time than at any previous date this winter. It is stated upon good authority that there are 100 students and teachers absent from the State Normal school, most of whom are believed to be afflicted with the malady, while about 125 students of the Oneonta High school are absent from the High school with corresponding numbers from the various ward schools also absent from the same cause.

At the same time there is scarcely a business place that has not one or more absentees from the same cause. The disease seems to be no respecter of persons and several of the city physicians whose services are needed at the present time are absent from the city. In some homes all the members of the family are either down with the ailment or are convalescing.

While the cases are not severe, the patients are having some fever and are requiring medical care. It is suggested that none can without great risk look upon the disease as other than serious and one requiring medical attention and care. The disease is not as virulent as the influenza, which prevailed three years ago, but it seems quite as prevalent. The safe rule is to be very careful and remain indoors until advised that it is safe to venture out.

See Japan.

Visitors to Japan, one of the port calls on the Elks' Around the World tour, will from a recent visit be busy as an Oneonta fireman on a hot ladder handling a live wire. Cannino's native musicians promise to warp the ear drums of all tourists, and his personally selected chorus, recruited from an all-night mislusion and an old ladies' home, will give an exhibition of phonetic note shaving seldom surpassed. Arthur Saville, in charge of this concession, has been wonderfully successful in his search of the land of Nippon for souvenirs, unique novelties and tempting wares, all deftly created and of the most exquisite sort. Art is of the opinion that Japan will make an exclusive Fifth avenue shop look like a dry goods department of a Portlandville Center store.

THAT NORMAL LINE

Its Retention Sought By Petitioners and Speakers

BUY FORD FOR POLICE

Common Council Listen to George L. Boakes and W. H. Lynch, Who Oppose Discontinuance of Normal Trolley Service — Charter Amendments Approved — Proposal to Regulate Pool Rooms and Bowling Alleys—Rest Seat Will Remain at Pearl Street Corner.

Numerously signed petitions from residents along the Normal trolley line and citizens generally protesting the removal of that line filed with the city clerk were brought before the common council at its meeting last night and 116n. George L. Boakes appeared to urge that careful consideration be given them, saying that a matter of so much importance to the city and especially to the Normal school and residents in the vicinity of that school be the subject of deliberate action. He stated that President, George I. Wilber of the Normal board and Hon. Walter L. Brown, the secretary, both had urged him to appear and say that they hoped the city would not consent to the removal of the line and would oppose it as detrimental to the welfare of the city. Wilbur and Lynch of the Normal faculty was also present and spoke in opposition to the displacement of the Normal line by a motor bus line. He ridiculed the service being given on the Normal line and said that the protest being heard against the proposed step is indicative that transportation is needed by residents of that section.

Mayor Miller assured the speakers that what they had said would be given due consideration and said that he felt that the council would not act until it was determined the wise and just course to pursue for all concerned. No action was taken.

Charter Amendments Approved.

There was no appearance of residents when the hearing upon the proposed amendments to the city charter was called. Aldermen Francis and Deery voiced opposition to the provision in one measure increasing the salary of the city judge from $1,000 to $1,200, saying that the present is no time in which to increase salaries.

Mayor Miller stated that the provision was one that had been included in the amendments introduced last year but defeated because of the provision relative to the number of superintendents proposed from the city and there had been no desire to propose any amendment that had not popular approval in the city. He explained that the measure would have to be approved or rejected in its entirety and suggested that the proposal to change the name of the Oneonta Public Library to the Huntington Memorial Library should be approved. He further stated that this provision could not become effective during the term of the present city judge because of a constitutional provision. It was finally agreed that both amendments, one relating to provisions for remedying the conditions caused by Silver and other creeks and the other amending the charter generally to be approved and a resolution to that effect passed unanimously. Aldermen Lauren and Congdon being absent.

Marquee at Oneonta Theatre.

George A. Roberts and E. D. R. Moore, representing O. S. Hathaway, appeared before the council and presented a request to be permitted to erect a marquee or canopy over the sidewalk at the entrance to the Oneonta theatre. Mr. Roberts, speaking on behalf of Mr. Hathaway, said that it was not intended for advertising purposes in the least but would be of neat design of metal and glass and desired to protect patrons arriving at the theatre in the event of storms.

The question was raised that while it seemed desirable to grant the request, an ordinance of the city preventing the erection of such structures or advertising signs over walks by adding without the consent of the common council and a motion to amend was passed without dissent. Assurance was given that at the next meeting after the amended ordinance has been published that consent will be given.

To Print Annual Report.

The annual report of City Chamberlain Howard H. for the year 1921 was presented for inspection by members and a resolution that same be published in The Star, the official newspaper, and that 100 copies of it in pamphlet form be printed was passed.

Park Bonds Sold.

But one bid was received for the $25,000 issue of park improvement bonds. It came from the Citizens National bank of this city which offered to pay par and accrued interest. The bid was accepted, the resolution being amended making them payable at the Citizens National bank in accordance with the suggestion of the bank.

WORK BEGUN FOR THEATRE

Razing of Wilber House Commenced and Excavation Will Soon Start for Maxie Theatre — Now Planned to Erect Three Story Building.

A large force of men was put to work yesterday razing the house on the Wilber plot at the corner of Ford avenue and Main streets and early next week work with a steam shovel will be commenced, excavating for the $200,000 theatre and business block erect upon the site. T. J. Maxey of Latrobe, Pa., president of the corporation, is in the city supervising the work.

It was originally planned to erect a two story building but Mr. Maxey announces that the plans, which are being prepared by Architect J. C. Cummings of Norwich, have been altered to provide for a three story block with two stories and the theatre on the ground floor and 3 suites of offices on each of the second and third floors. The building will be erected on that portion of the plot nearest the Wilber bank and will have a Main street frontage of 52 feet and a depth of 150 feet. This leaves a strip of land 25 feet wide on the Ford avenue side. It is the intention of the company to enlarge the building to cover this area at a later date and it will be so constructed that the addition can be easily built. This will provide stores on the Ford avenue side. The block will be built on a line with the Wilber bank and the land in front made available for the widening of the Main street sidewalk at that point.

TWO WEEKS AT PEKSKILL

Captain Baker and Members of Company G to Have Fortnight's Outing With Instructions During July.

Captain Louis M. Baker of Company G has been notified that the local company, together with all companies of the 10th infantry of the New York guard, will go into summer camp at Peekskill July 9 to 23 for a fortnight of instruction and training.

Few organizations give their members a two weeks' outing in summer camp with good provisions for their comfort and with numerous diversions arranged for them with pay for the entire time, and the members of Company G may consider themselves fortunate in being able to secure such an outing with pay from the state. It is expected that the announcement will affect the attendance and quite possibly effect some enlistments in the company. News that the company is to have a stay in camp this summer will be greeted with satisfaction, it is believed, by practically all the members.

PROMINENT MIDDLEFIELD MAN.

William North Dies Suddenly of Heart Failure Monday Evening.

Middlefield, March 21. — A gloom was cast over this community Tuesday morning when it was learned that William North had passed away the previous evening at 8 o'clock. Neighbors were calling that evening at his home, and all were enjoying a pleasant visit when Mr. North, who was seated on the sofa and was apparently in the best of health, fell over unconscious and died almost instantly. The cause of death is believed to have been heart failure.

The funeral services will be held at his late home Thursday at 2 p. m. Rev. J. D. Rice of the Middlefield Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a consistent member, will officiate and burial will be in the family plot in the cemetery at this place. He was a true Christian, a man of strict integrity and of the kindest instincts, and in their great affliction the members of the family will have the sympathy of all who knew him.

The deceased, who was a son of the late Aaron and Jane Ann North, was born in Middlefield December 6, 1867, and was married December 20, 1898, to May B. Lewis of this place. He is survived by his wife, above named, by two daughters, Edith, aged 14, and Beale, aged 12 years; also by one brother, D. F. North, with whom he was closely associated, owning a large farm in partnership and the two families occupying a double house together.

MAY MAP CITY FROM AIR

Proposition to Photograph Oneonta With Fairchild Aerial Camera as Aid in Intelligent City Zoning and Planning Being Considered by Chamber of Commerce Committee.

That the aerial camera invented and now being manufactured by Sherman M. Fairchild, son of Hon. and Mrs. G. W. Fairchild may be used to photograph Oneonta from the air as an aid in intelligent zoning of the city is a possibility now being considered by the Zoning Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, composed of P. R. Chambers, H. D. Alden, M. E. Brownell, T. A. Crounse, G. J. Dunn, W. B. H. McClelland and C. C. Miller. Secretary Everett Hicks is now in communication with Mr. Fairchild to ascertain the expense of having the city mapped from the air.

The March issue of "The American City" contains an article along this line by Nelson P. Lewis, a city planning engineer, and illustrated with pictures taken from the air by the Fairchild Aerial Camera Corporation. The following excerpts from the article show clearly how photographs taken by the aerial camera would aid in the work of zoning the city and of intelligent planning for future growth.

"In all city planning work a knowledge of the topography is one of the first essentials. A topographic survey, as generally understood, would, however, involve a large expense, while great accuracy is unnecessary during the earlier days of city planning.

"The development of aerial photography has made it possible to secure information of very great value at relatively small expense; such information as will make it possible to decide both quickly and intelligently upon some general features of the plan which can be developed most economically and with best adaptation to topography. One can ride, or even walk, over the territory for which a plan is desired; he may follow the valleys, climb over the ridges, observe the location of buildings and of wooded tracts available for public playgrounds and other essential features, but will retain only a confused idea of their position with respect to each other. Suppose, however, he were able to look down upon this same territory from a height of one or two miles and to carry with him a permanent and accurate record of what he saw, how greatly it would help him to decide upon the general scheme, the details of which may be developed later.

"It is not only in the mapping of undeveloped territory or of new additions to existing towns that this new art is of very great assistance. Much of the work of city planning is devoted to the correction of mistakes or supplying omissions in the plans of territory already intensively developed. We may be well aware of the defects of the present plan, may realize the need of additional thoroughfares to relieve existing congestion, may appreciate the need of better connections between the different units of our park system, may feel that our waterfront should be utilized to better advantage; but riding or walking about the town or the careful study of maps will not give us such a vivid impression of the existing conditions or help us to arrive at a possible solution, as will the opportunity to look down upon the city from an elevation sufficient to give a distinct view of the area as a whole, but low enough to enable us to see every important detail.

"If then, without equipping survey parties and spending weeks and months laboriously collecting information which is later to be used in preparing maps and making relief models, we can, in as many days as the other survey would require months, obtain accurate information as to existing conditions, it is quite evident that a great advance has been made in a direction which will be of inestimable value to those planning for the future development, not only of cities, but of suburban and rural districts."

Death of Wesley J. Goodsell. West Oneonta, March 21.—James E. Goodsell of this place has received tidings of the death of his brother, Wesley J. Goodsell, at his home in Jasper, this state. The funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m., at his late home. The deceased was born 61 years ago in the town of Laurens and was a son of the late Joel and Louisa Goodsell. THEODORE COBINE DEAD

Former Resident of Otsego and Maryland Passes Away at Son's Home Here.

Theodore Cobine, for the past two years a resident of this city, but more widely known in other parts of the county, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of his son, Arthur Cobine, 87 West street. Although he had suffered with heart trouble at intervals for several years past, his last illness was only of five days' duration. It is expected that Rev. J. C. Johnson, pastor of the Elm Park Methodist church, will conduct the funeral services, which will be held at the Cobine home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Owing to the fact that Mrs. Mary Cobine, widow of the deceased, is confined to her bed by illness, the services will be private. Mrs. Cobine has been suffering with erysipelas for several weeks past and has been seriously ill, but now is on the road to recovery.

Mr. Cobine was born in the town of Franklin on April 9, 1847, a son of John W. and Cyrene (Pomeroy) Cobine, and spent his early life in that place. On October 29, 1874, he married Mary Hopkins at Otsego, and they resided in that village for many years, he conducting a lumber shop. Later they purchased a farm in Maryland, where they conducted until ten years ago, when Mr. Cobine suffered the loss of a leg through gangrene and was forced to retire from active work. Mr. and Mrs. Cobine then went to live with their son, Arthur Cobine, and came to Oneonta when the latter's family moved here two years ago. The deceased had a large number of friends throughout the county who will learn with regret of his death.

Besides his widow, Mr. Cobine leaves the son mentioned; one grandchild, Miss Vivian E. Cobine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cobine, one daughter, Mrs. Jennie Mackley of Unadilla, and two brothers, Watson L. Cobine of 21 Spruce street, this city, and Walter Cobine of Rotterdam Junction.

Mrs. Cyrene Cobine mother of the deceased died in Oneonta on February 24, 1904.

Canfield, on the knoll overlooking this village, and will transform it into a summer hotel to be known as Tindarrath, made him a surprise visit on Saturday evening and passed a pleasant evening at cards. The event was in the nature of a welcome-home visit, he having formerly resided here and having recently returned here from Birmingham, where he had for several years been practicing law. All citizens unite in wishing him success in the project.

WORRY LEADS TO INSANITY

Chemango County Farmer, Fearing Inability to Meet Payments, Loses Mind—Other News of Interest.

(Special to The Star)

Norwich, March 21. — Richard Rodebeck, 50 years old, was taken to the state hospital in Binghamton today, insane from worry over his financial affairs.

Rodebeck bought a farm several months ago in Pithers and while he had met past payments promptly he was afraid he could not meet this next one. He could not sleep but refused to leave his bed by day, would not eat or talk, and declined his customary chew of tobacco. He was taken to the county house last week for observation. This morning when the hospital attendant came for him Rodebeck refused to dress or put on his shoes but was finally made ready for the transfer to Binghamton. A German by birth, he does not understand English and his wife speaks it very brokenly. They have six children; one boy left home last fall and has not been found. The other children attend school and are making good progress in their studies.

Sidney Mill to Reopen.

Attorney Hubert L. Brown was in Sidney today and delivered the deed for the property of the bankrupt Revellier silk mills to Herbert F.

Pearson, trustee, who it is said represents the New York syndicate that will reopen the mills, which have been idle for nearly a year. A new corporation will operate them as a textile manufacturing of cloth and other products from China grass.

Norwich High School Reopened. Regular sessions were resumed this morning at the Norwich High school building, which had been under imperative repairs for several weeks, the floors having settled, the staircases weakened, the roof become unsafe, and the fire escapes inadequate.

Auto Bus Damaged by Fire.

An auto bus owned by Frank Bushley of this city, which made regular trips between Norwich, Oxford and Sherburne, was driven to Oxford last night on a special trip with a party of 14. The party had barely alighted from the bus and left it parked at the roadside when it burst into flames. The gasoline tank exploded and the entire body was consumed. The Oxford fire department was called out to fight the fire, which destroyed all the woodwork except part of the floor. The loss is estimated at about $1,000 without any insurance.

Jail Inspection Report.

Mayor Miller called attention to the published report of the recent inspection of the Oneonta city jail and suggested that the commission had recommended that action on the recommendations it is proposed to take. Sentiment was expressed that the city should not be compelled to maintain too attractive a jail but that every effort should be made to keep the jail clean, dry, wholesome and warm. It was decided to advise that provision would be made for keeping the jail clean, for detention rooms outside the jail, for the removal of the contraband liquor stored there for the federal government and enter a protest against providing mattresses for the berths in the cells.

May Regulate Pool Rooms.

Mayor Miller presented to the council a model ordinance prepared by the Mayor's conference, for the regulation of pool rooms and bowling alleys and providing that persons conducting boarding or rooming houses be required to keep a register of all occupants of rooms for the consideration of the council. It was decided to refer the ordinance to City Attorney Gibbs and the law committee for consideration and recommendations.

Rest Seat to Remain.

Alderman France recommended that the request for the removal of the rest seat provided for the public at the corner of Chestnut and Pearl streets be refused. He stated that practically all other residents of that section desire the seat retained and that several have protested to him against its removal. Mr. France stated that the seat is used by a number of aged and physically handicapped people and that it is appreciated by many. He suggested that the children played about the corner before the seat was placed there and will continue to play there whether the seat be removed or not. The seat annoys no one except the individual complaining. Clerk Close was requested to notify the petitioner of the decision. All endorsed the report of Mr. France.

Ford Car for Police.

Report came from the police department that it could secure a Ford car in exchange for the one used until recently by the department, by the payment of $400. A resolution was passed transferring from the general fund to the police fund the sum named, the amount to be expended in the purchase of a new Ford car for the use of the department. It was stated that the department is now obliged to use a taxi for all emergency calls and that a Ford car would prove an economy. All members present voted for the resolution.

"OUT FISHIN"

A feller isn't thinkin' mean,
Out fishin'.
His thoughts are mostly good and clean,
Out fishin'.
He doesn't knock his fellow men,
Or harbor any grudges then;
A feller's at his finest, when
Out fishin'.

The rich are comrades to the poor,
Out fishin'.
All brothers of a common lure,
Out fishin'.
The urchin with the pin and string,
Can chum with millionaire and king;
Vain pride is a forgotten thing,
Out fishin'.

A feller gets a chance to dream,
Out fishin'.
He learns the beauties of a stream,
Out fishin'.
And he can wash his soul in air
That isn't foul with selfish care,
An' relish plain and simple fare
Out fishin'.

A feller has not time for hate,
Out fishin'.
He isn't eager to be great,
Out fishin'.
He isn't thinkin' thoughts of pelf,
Or goods stacked high upon a shelf,
But he is always just himself
Out fishin'.

A feller's glad to be a friend,
Out fishin'.
A helppin' hand he'll always lend,
Out fishin'.
The brotherhood of rod and line,
An' sky an' stream is always fine,
Then come real close to God's design,
Out fishin'.

A feller isn't plotting schemes,
Out fishin'.
He's only busy with his dreams,
Out fishin'.
His liver is a coat of tan,
His eyes, too, do the best he can,
A feller's always mostly man,
Out fishin'.

ELECTED SUPERINTENDENT

Prof. W. H. Lynch of Normal Faculty Will Head Educational System of Amsterdam — New Position Affords Wide Opportunities—His Departure Will Be Regretted.

Wilbur H. Lynch, for the past seven years superintendent of the training department at the Oneonta State Normal school, has accepted the election by the board of education at Amsterdam to be superintendent of schools in that city. It was announced yesterday. He will continue his work at the Normal school until the end of the school year and will assume the duties of the very important position which he has been chosen to fill on August 1.

The honor comes entirely unsolicited. Prof. Lynch had no intention of leaving Oneonta until he was notified that he had been elected superintendent of the Amsterdam schools. Although as loath to leave his work at the Normal and his many associations in Oneonta as Dr. Bugbee and citizens generally will be to have him do so, Prof. Lynch felt constrained in view of the substantial increase in salary and of the wider opportunity in Amsterdam, a city of about 38,000 population, had eleven schools employing over 200 teachers and the opportunities there for constructive work of the kind for which all who know Prof. Lynch will attest that he is a real genius, are great. The city is growing and the school problems which will arise in the future will be of a nature requiring exceptional training and ability.

Prof. Lynch will not be a stranger in Amsterdam since for six years he was principal of the High school in that city and doubtless his fine record at that time has much to do with his recent choice as head of the entire educational system. He is well acquainted with conditions there and the knowledge that the position of superintendent of schools would entail much constructive work influenced his decision to accept the honor.

Well equipped for the position by reason of a splendid education and extensive experience, Prof. Lynch will prove just the man for the Amsterdam situation. A graduate of the Oneonta Normal, he taught on the hill for two years before completing his education at Harvard university. A period of teaching on Long Island preceded his six years as High school principal at Amsterdam. From that city he was called to Mexico City, Mexico, as superintendent of the American schools there and so excellent was his record that he recently received an offer to return there. Prof. Lynch came back to Oneonta seven years ago and has since been superintendent of the training school at the Normal, where his services have been invaluable and where he will be greatly missed by his associates on the faculty and students alike. His work here has given him wide prominence as an educator.

Prof. Lynch has been very active in all that pertains to the welfare of the city. He is now Boy Scout commissioner and president of the Fish, Game and Gun club, two organizations very close to his heart. He has also been deeply interested in agricultural matters and served as master of the Oneonta grange for two years. During the war, he was prominent on many committees.

It was with regret that the Normal authorities learned of his decision and the same regret will be felt by his many friends in the city. All will extend hearty congratulations, however, upon the wider opportunity now opening to him.

NEGLIGENCE ACTION FAILS

Mrs. Smith Fails to Recover for Death in Motor Car Accident at Cooperstown Junction.

Delhi, March 21. — The jury in the negligence action brought by S. Agnes Smith as administratrix of the estate of the late Everett J. Smith against the D. & H. company for damages for the death of Smith, who was killed at the crossing of the Cooperstown branch tracks at Cooperstown Junction, while riding in the motor car of Arthur Seybolt esq. of Oneonta returned a verdict late today of no cause of action.

It will be recalled that Smith was on his way to inspect a farm which Seybolt was about to show him, with the idea of purchasing, when the motor car was hit by the Cooperstown train and two lives were lost. The plaintiff sought to fix responsibility for the accident upon the railroad company. The plaintiff was represented by Sewell & France of Sidney and Hon. Charles C. Flesch of Unadilla, the latter taking the brunt of the contest before the jury. They struggled hard to secure a verdict.

The railroad company was represented by former Surrogate N. P. Willis of Cooperstown, who was assisted in the conduct of the case, and whose skillful work was largely responsible in convincing the jury that the company should not be held responsible in any way for the accident. The jury was not long in reaching a verdict.
